It is rumored in Danielsonwille that certain well known woolen manufacturers are talking about that place as a suitable location for the erection of a woolen mill. It is believed that the in- to be fair. dustry will be established there in the mear future.

Burglars and safe crackers made a raid in Southfield Friday night, crack-ing the safe in Lockwood's store, breaking into the post office, into Cook's store and entering the dwelling of C. J. Palmer. They secured but little plunder. It is supposed that it is the same gang that were in the Norfolk job Thursday

Charles Tainter of New York city has bought the Colchester rubber plant with all the dwellings, and will convert the same into a silver planting concern. He has also bought adjoining property and is negotiating for other property.

John H. Sud, aged fifty years, a well known resident of Quininebaug, and for many years overseer of the filling department in the Quininebaug mills, was struck by the 3:45 train Friday night. His escape from instant death was miraculous. At a consultation of doctors Saturday it was found that his right arm was so badly smashed that it will be necessary to amputate it close to the shoulder. Owing to his nervous temperament and his weak condition it s feared the operation may prove fa-

The residence of Joseph M. Childs at Gardner Lake, was destroyed by an inendlary fire shortly after midnight Saturday morning. The post office was located in the store, which occupied the ground floor of the building, and the ouches, together with considerable mail matter, were destroyed. The whole building with contents was completely devastated, causing a loss of $3,000, with but a small insurance. The inmates and barely time to escape in their night clothes.

Clara Rosine Elener, the daughter of William and Teresa Eicner who made an attempt on her life Friday night, died Saturday morning. After taking poison she was conscious for some time and stated that the reason she took it was because she feared for her good name. On Sunday, two weeks ago, she said, while returning from Sunday school to her home she met an old schoolmate, who attempted to assault her, but failed on account of the des-perate resistance she made. Since then he had been brooding over the matter, with the result that Friday night she took a quantity of rough on rats and chloroform. An investigation is being made by Dr. Hanchett, the coroner, which may result in the arrest of a well nown young man. It is said that there is no doubt that an attempt was made, and that the name of the culprit was known. The young woman had an ex-cellent reputation. Her parents are grief-stricken.

ALL RIGHT AGAIN

Despite His Fall From an Electric Car. Edmund Hogan, who while trying to save hi hat, fell from a West Haven electric car Saturday night and who was taken to the hospital in a dying condition, as was thought, was reported to be all right last night. He was intoxicated at the time of the accident, but after being trimmed up at the hos-pital he came out all right.
